

ROLL ALONG EASILY . . . The board that worker Eldridge Purdy is sitting on is saving a lot of backaches out at National Supply Co. Consisting of a plank with some rollers on the bottom, the scaffold is used in putting studs on roof purlins preparatory to new roof installation. Previously, when it was necessary to replace worn corrugated metal roofing, a man had to stand on the slippery iron sheet, bend over open space, and reach out two feet or more to put the studs in place. This was not only slow and dangerous, but also very tiring. Martin Kvilvang, an employee of the company for more than ten years, designed the scaffold which is now in use. The whole contrivance rolls along the roof purlins, the worker propelling himself with his feet.

Entry Deadline Near For Chamber Contest

More than 200 entries in the Torrance Chamber of Commerce-sponsored contest to promote use of the Torrance Shoppers Guide have been received, Chamber Secretary Dale Isenberg reported yesterday.

The contest, for which $100 in merchandise orders to the top three entrants has been set up by the Chamber, will close at midnight, Aug. 31, Isenberg said. Entries mailed to the Chamber office must be postmarked prior to that time, he said.

Entrants in the contest must merely complete the sentence: "I use and like the Torrance Shoppers Guide because . . ." in 50 words or less.

Judges for the contest will be Judge Otto B. Willett, Judge John A. Shidler, Rev. Cecil J. England, and Mrs. Grace Wright. A Chamber committee, to be named later, will screen the entrants and pass along the top ones to the judges for final selection.

The first-place winner will receive a merchandise certificate in the amount of $50 which will be redeemable for merchandise at any firm advertising in the guide.

Second prize winner will receive a similar certificate for $35 and the third prize winner will receive a certificate for $15.

Parrish To Crown King and Queen At Recreation Dept. Open House

Darwin Parrish, chairman of the recreation commission, will crown the King and Queen of Health tonight at 7 o'clock at the Civic Auditorium as a part of the annual Recreation Department Open House which climaxes the activities of the playgrounds in the local area.

The open house will begin at 6:30 and judging of the boys and girls for King and Queen of Health will begin at that time.

The children to be judged will be representatives from all the summer playgrounds.

All playgrounds will participate in a display of summer crafts and ribbons will be awarded for the best items on each playground. The playground having the most attractive display will be awarded a certificate.

Over one thousand items have already been classified for this event.

In addition, a talent show will be a part of the program and will include: Penny Chill, Linda Baker, Shirley Hinesley, Alice Newborn, and Julie Widmark, who will all sing; Gus Stinnett, who will play a trumpet solo; Liary Payne and Patsy Kelley, who will do a tap dance; and Dolores James who will do a hula. A large group from the "Specialty Club," a new addition to the recreation program this summer, will do a tap dance and several children will give a Latin twirling exhibition.

Also included in the program will be the awarding of certificates to those who passed the swimming tests held recently at Alondra Lake. Mr. Charles Ragsdale, president of the Kiwanis Club, is expected to present the certificates for the swim program which was sponsored by the Kiwanis Club for the third straight summer. Awards will be given out to the winners of the summer softball leagues following the ceremony.

Crowning of the king and queen will take place at 7 p.m. and the talent show will begin immediately thereafter. The Arts and Crafts show will be on display during the course of the entire evening.

Jay Rees will be master of ceremonies.
